ONE DEAD, ONE HURT IN ACCIDENTS

NEW PAVING HURRIED TO COMPLETION

S. Main-st Practically Ready Thru to Seventh-st

NIXON-AV READY FOR TOP

Union-st Tunnel Excavation Finished, Survey Shows

Clear weather is enabling contractors to complete new street work before the coming of winter.

S. Main-st between the B. & O. railroad and the intersection with Fourth-st and from this intersection to Seventh-st has been opened up. The first section is brick paved and the latter is asphalt top. Intersection with Fourth-st is now being paved and it is expected to have Fourth-st completed this week.

Immediately upon the completion of the Fourth-st paving the short stretch between the B. & O. railroad and the Erie railroad will be torn out and new paving installed. This will then open up a direct route to Wapakoneta and relieve motorists from the present detours. Frank Froese is the contractor on the job.

Base is now complete in Nixon-av between Wayne-st and Lakewood-av. It is expected that the asphalt top will be laid beginning Oct. 27, giving the concrete plenty of time to cure. This is the longest stretch being paved this year. George Walther is the contractor, Froese having done the excavating.

UNION-ST TUNNEL
Excavation work in Union-st under the Pennsylvania railroad tracks is completed and the curb and gutter will be installed at once. It is planned to have the street ready for placing the base by the last of the week. This will enable the contractors to finish the work and have the direct north and south route with no grade crossing open for motorists before winter sets in.

Laying of brick in E. North-st from Tingle-av to High-st road is nearing completion and it is expected to have the street open to traffic late this week. Holmes-av has been completed and opened for traffic.

Base is to be poured in W. Murphy-st from Baxter to Metcalf-st this week as soon as the work in N. Metcalf-st is completed. The mixer is also expected to go to Union-st for completion of the work between Edward and O'Connor-sts today. Central-av between Edward to O'Connor-sts will see the curb and gutter all completed.

Street grading in Union-st, Kildare to Northern-av and Central-av from Kent-st to the Lima-Toledo interurban line is being completed by Frank Froese. This is a 500 ft. job, one of the longest ever let by the city.

OIL SCANDAL TRIAL BEGINS

LEGAL BATTLE IN DOHENY CASE IS BEGUN

Suit Called up and Continued Until Tomorrow

PROMINENT MEN ON SCENE

Daniels Arrives to Testify in Cancellation Action

LOS ANGELES.—(By Associated Press)—Former Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels was to arrive today to testify in the government's suit against the Doheny interests for cancellation of Elk Hill naval oil reserve lease, trial of which is to open in federal court tomorrow.

Edwin Denby who was secretary of the navy when the leases were granted to E. L. Doheny, Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Co., by Albert B. Fall, the secretary of the interior, arrived, and Curtis D. Wilbur, present head of the navy department, is expected to testify before the trial is concluded.

ARRAY OF LEGAL TALENT
An array of legal talent seldom seen in any court room has been gathered for the past week in preparation for the court battle for possession of the lease valued in the neighborhood of $100,000,000.

The luxurious bowling alley and lodge on the Doheny estate have been transformed into headquarters for Frank J. Hogan, chief of defense counsel, and his staff, while a suite of offices in the federal building houses Atlee Fomerene and Owen J. Roberts, special counsel for the government, Joseph C. Burke, United States district attorney, and their assistants in the prosecution of the oil lease case.

The case was to be formally called in Judge McCormick's court today and immediately by stipulation of counsel continued until tomorrow.

SUIT ANSWERED BY OIL CO.
Contracts Complained of Expired, Standard Says

CHICAGO.—(By Associated Press)—Many contracts complained of by the government in its suit started last June under the Sherman act against fifty oil companies expired long before the suit was filed, the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana set up in its answer today. The Texas Co. recently filed a general denial of the charges. The licensing of one company to use the patents of another was the result of patents overlapping, tho some companies were threatening suits, other with infringement suits, said the answer. To obviate that situation, the answer set forth, it was agreed to adjust the controversies for use of gasoline "cracking" patents by licensing the companies' so-called pooling agreements. These were not combinations in restraint of trade or commerce as charged by the government, the answer asserted, but on the other hand the Standard Oil Company of Indiana has "endeavored to have his observed in letter and spirit the laws of the United States of America."

The defendant company, according to the answer, owns 23 different kinds of United States patents for the cracking process. Early in the experience, in licensing other companies to use its patents, the answer said, there were restrictive clauses in the contracts by which its counsel for the protection of its business, but all contracts containing the restrictions' provisions about which the government complained, expired more than six years before filing the suits. Its licenses now, the company, "are wholly free of limitation as to quantity of production, place of sale or price."

The answer denied that the Indiana company is or has been a party to any pool or combination in restraint of trade, or has made any contracts restraining trade beyond its lawful rights under its patents. On the contrary it averred the company has voluntarily adopted the policy of extending its patent rights broadly to others, thereby greatly increasing the quantity of motor fuel produced and maintaining prices much lower than they would have had it reserved its patented processes exclusively to itself as it might lawfully have done.

Probe of LaFollette Chest Asked by Butler

CHICAGO.—(By United Press)—Counter charges of a "slush fund" by the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket were made today in a statement issued from Republican campaign headquarters here over the name of William M. Butler, national chairman. Butler has asked Senator Borah, chairman of the senate campaign committee, to summon witnesses from Wisconsin to tell of the proposal to raise $500,000 in that state alone for the independent ticket.

If the same ratio was followed in other states, the LaFollette-Wheeler fund would be higher than Republican campaign fund, Butler stated.

Senator Borah and other members of his committee are due in Washington today. The slush fund charges made by Senator LaFollette against the Republican ticket will be investigated there, starting tomorrow afternoon when leading bankers and manufacturers and W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, will be heard.

Can't Carry Out Extensive Speaking Tour Plans

WRITES FROM HOSPITAL

Doing Utmost for Democrats, However, He Says

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — After a brief illness from carrying out plans to make an extensive speaking tour in behalf of the Democratic ticket, William G. McAdoo, informed Senator Swanson of Virginia, head of the Democratic speakers' bureau, in a letter published today, that his illness is not serious, but that he is unable to continue his tour.

The letter, written at Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, where he recently underwent an operation, asserted that "the alternative to having a complete reaction and cure is death."

The letter of John W. Davis and Charles W. Bryan, he added, offers the only chance to "carry the government and to accomplish the policies" demanded by the people.

It was his first extended statement on the campaign since the Democratic national convention.

"If the forces of reaction represented by the Coolidge administration succeed in November," he said, "it will be the greatest division in the ranks of the progressive and liberal forces in America. It is a great pity that the progressives led by La Follette and Wheeler and Bryan cannot present a united front against the common enemy."

Election Board Asked to See Law is Obedied

Strict observance of all election laws were demanded in a letter received Monday by the board of elections from Thad H. Brown, secretary of state.

Similar letters were sent to all election boards in Ohio, by the secretary of state in response to numerous letters received concerning the conduct of the election.

The letters received by Brown, he explained, disclose that tense partisan feeling exists.

Brown called attention to certain sections of the state law designed to insure fair and impartial conduct of the election, and an accurate and fair count when the polls have closed.

If the laws are carefully observed, Brown declares there can be no cause for complaint from anyone.

Sections of the law stressed by Secretary Brown as most important in securing an honest and unbiased election were those prohibiting tampering with the voting places and electioneer at the polls; requiring boards to be in continuous session from the moment the polls are opened until the ballots are counted; rigid inspection of ballot boxes before the polls open to make sure there is no "stuffing" beforehand and the method of counting the votes.

Allen-on election board officials declared that Secretary Brown's instructions and warning will be carried out to the letter.

CHANGE NOTED IN OHIO CAMPAIGN

Sharp Contrast With Battle of Four Years Ago

CHARGES, COUNTER CHARGE

Mainly Fight Now Between Donahey and Davis

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — A gift-horse, which the governor says he looked in the mouth and returned to its owner, a caged canary, a flying squirrel, 122 pardons from penal institutions, numerous highway construction contracts, and an emergency fuel commission from the nucleus around which fly the countless charges in Ohio's gubernatorial contest.

Contrasting sharply with the campaign of four years ago when all was overshadowed by two native sons, Warren G. Harding and James M. Cox—running for president, the voters this year are being asked to rivet their attention on the political equivalent of "shoes and ships and sealing wax."

There are no "burning state-wide issues." The numerous charges and counter charges which Governor Vic Donahey, Democrat, and his opponent, Harry L. Davis, Republican, are hurling at each other have not crystallized into issues.

RECORD FOR RECORD

At best the contest is Donahey vs Davis, record for record, as each has served a term in the gubernatorial chair.

Davis whose campaign has been more active than Donahey's, who has used the stump in his own behalf, opened up by charging that Donahey had received many fine gifts from persons who later were favored by the executive offices. Davis called upon the governor to make public a list of the gifts he had received since taking office.

Donahey agreed and the gift list was published. Led off with the riding horse, which Donahey said he had given back, and named other pets of the executive mansion.

Since then the contest has been a long series of attacks on Donahey by Davis, who is stumping the state, and replies, denials and countercharges by Donahey who refuses to leave the state house to make speeches.

This is the same gubernatorial card that was presented four years ago when Davis was swept into office on the same tide that carried Warren G. Harding to the White House. Two years ago Davis did not seek re-election and Donahey was elected over Carmel Thompson who was said to be the choice of President Harding for governor of his home state.

In this election there is little likelihood that who ever is elected president will carry a governor of Ohio into office with him. The independent candidacy of Roert M. LaFollette is expected to draw equally from both major parties.

60 Injured When Trolley Trains Crash Near Buffalo

BUFFALO — (By Associated Press) — In the wreck of two international railway high speed trolley trains at Tonawanda yesterday two persons were killed and more than sixty injured, five probably fatally.

Home P. Foreman, motorman of a three-car trolley train that crashed into another section bearing Pennsylvania and New Jersey excursionists enroute from Niagara Falls to a hospital today. His testimony is being taken at an explanation that his train rushed at more than thirty miles an hour along about 1,000 feet of straight track into the rear of the standing cars.

Miss Florence Devery and George McCullough, both of Philadelphia, were killed.

Of the sixty or more treated at Tonawanda and Buffalo hospitals all except 28 had left for their homes today.

DELPHOS MAN RELEASED FROM COUNTY PRISON

Three barred doors of the Allen county jail swung open Monday for Delphos liquor law violators who have been sojourning at expense of the county since Aug. 26, when they were committed from Delphos city court, for non payment of $100 fines.

The quartet, Albert Jacomet, Raymond Ruhoff, Isaac Ridenour and Edward Renner, were paroled as indigent prisoners by the county commissioners. They have spent 61 days each behind the bars.

Under terms of their paroles they are to pay $5 a month each toward their fines.

HOSPITALS ARE APPROVED

Both City and St. Rita's Institutions Honored

St. Rita's hospital and Lima City hospital are included in the official list of approved hospitals in the United States and Canada announced Monday morning at the Hospital Conference of the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons in New York, by Franklin H. Martin, M. D., director general.

The official list of hospitals meeting the minimum requirements of the American College of Surgeons presents the results of the seventh survey of hospitals of 100 and over, the third survey of hospitals of 50 to 100 beds, and the preliminary survey of hospitals, of which 1,416 or 59 per cent meet the requirements.

St. Rita's is included in the list of those hospitals with 100 or more beds, while the City hospital is in the second list of 50 to 100 beds.

Total number of hospitals surveyed in Ohio was 81, of which 66 or 81.5 per cent met the requirements.

Lima is unusually fortunate in having two approved hospitals. There are no others in Ohio within radius of 60 miles from Lima. The next closest approved hospitals are in Springfield, Fremont, Toledo and Dayton.

The requirements for approved hospitals are universally acceptable for they aim at focusing the hospital's attention directly on the care of the patient. This means much to the 12,000,000 patients passing thru the hospitals of the United States and Canada annually, Director General Martin says.

GOV. BRYAN OFF FOR TOUR OF MIDDLE WEST

ST. LOUIS — Primed for battle Governor Charles W. Bryan, Democratic candidate for vice president, left here early today facing a strenuous schedule of an even dozen speeches in Illinois, Ohio and Indiana. His first program of speaking dates east of the Mississippi river since the beginning of the campaign.

According to those being consulted on the itinerary there is a possibility that additional places may be sandwiched in between most of the fixed dates.

Failure to obtain a hall in Middletown, Ohio, has necessitated a change back to the original plans calling for a speech by Governor Bryan at Canton Thursday.

MAY REVEAL TAX CUT PROGRAM

Coolidge Expected to Outline Plans Thursday Night

TO ADDRESS BUSINESS MEN

Will Confer With Farm Leaders This Week

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — President Coolidge set aside part of his time today to start work on the address he will deliver here Thursday night before the eastern division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in which he is expected to outline definitely his program for tax reduction. He also plans to visit a meeting of officials of the Near East Relief here this week and later to address by radio a meeting in New York of the Federated Societies of Jewish Charities.

Several farm leaders have been asked by the president to come here for conferences this week on the proposed investigation of agriculture conditions with a view to mapping out a legislative proposal for congress.

Endorsing plans of the Navy League of the United States to observe October 27, the birthday of President Roosevelt, as Navy Day, Mr. Coolidge, in a letter to Commander Marion Eppley, national chairman of the organization, said it could not be doubted that the navy's services to "peace and sciences of peace" would continue to justify the maintenance of the full naval capacity under the Washington Arms conference treaty. That the naval treaty "will prove only the beginning of an international program involving continuing reductions of armaments by land, b sea and by air," he added, "is the earnest hope of all who desire the abolition of war."

U. S. INTERVENES IN TONG WAR

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — All efforts at mediation in the tong war in the east have failed and the next step must be federal intervention and deportation of those responsible for continuation of the murderous feud, Inspector Alfred W. Brough of the Chinese Bureau of the Immigration Service declared today.

Word of murder of a Chinese in Detroit, the latest victim of rivalry between the On Leong and Hip Sing there was fresh activity by police and detectives here to prevent an outbreak of vengeance.

Leaders of the On Leongs refused to meet those of the Hip Sings in a peace parley this week end. As a result Inspector Brough announced he will exert all his influence to bring deportation into play to end the strife.

Any Chinese found carrying weapons illegally will be made liable to deportation as a "dangerous radical," he said, and it may be possible even to resort to wholesale deportations of tong leaders.

Dr. Sze, Chinese minister to Washington, sailed for Europe to attend a narcotic conference at Geneva, expressing fears that the tong war in the east was far from over. The peace parley signed at Washington affected only the District of Columbia, he explained.

It developed today that the tong war has a Canadian angle and an investigation has been begun at Ottawa. Reports are that it was a "squeal" in connection with the smuggling of Chinese across the Canadian border into the United States that led to the first killing in the present phase of the feud.

DEPORTATION OF MANY CHINESE IS THREATENED

GREEKS SEIZED BY TURKS

3,000 Imprisoned in Historic Fortress of Seven Towers

CONSTANTINOPLE — (By United Press) — At the point of the bayonet, routing their victims from bed, Turkish police have taken matters of exchange of populations with Greece into their own hands and marched some 3,000 Greeks to imprisonment into historic fortress of the Seven Towers.

The Greeks who were hustled off without being permitted to bring belongings, included many who were not to be exchanged, but their protests fell upon deaf ears.

A child suffering from smallpox was dragged off to the fortress, old men and women were prodded along the road by armed convoys and in one instance a baker's boy, his hands and apron still white with flour, was hurried off to prison.

The Greek population of Constantinople is terror-stricken as a result of the action of the police. The latter claim the Greeks seized belong to category slated for exchange and that they have delayed too long after obtaining passports. Many of the prisoners had no passports, however.

Strong protests have been made to the mixed inter-allied commission which has charge of the transfer of Greeks to Greece, in return for Turks to Turkey, but the commission has been unable to check the arrests.

Time For Thought

Election day is only fifteen days away. On that day the people of Allen-co will assist in naming officials for national, state and local governments. Every office from president down to coroner will be filled by the voters. We hope it will be by the majority rather than by the minority as threatened to be the case in the 1920 general election.

Registration is out of the way. The people responded nobly to the appeal for registration. They demonstrated that their interest in good government has not reached the low ebbs indicated in recent elections and primaries. We trust that the interest will be carried thru the election on November 4.

Now that only the finals remain, the preliminaries and semi-finals having been disposed of by the primary and the registration, it is time for serious thought on the part of the people. Who shall be chosen to fill the governmental offices for the next two or four years? Shall we give more thought to party than to records, actions and ability to serve? Shall we take into consideration the corruption of the recent past or shall we forget it and trustingly vote and hope for the best?

These are questions that voters must ponder. There are many others that might be enumerated, but these will serve as a good start.

In addition to having a record vote at the coming election, we are hoping that we shall also have a record for intelligent voting. Only in this way can good government be assured.

In this connection, we consider it a privilege to call attention of the voters to the Democratic ticket, national, state and county. We take pleasure in directing attention to the records of the men who make up the ticket from top to bottom and to the platform on which they stand.

We believe the voters should look over the records of the Democratic candidates with a view of comparison from the standpoint of progressive action and ability and desire to serve the people. These records will stand the searchlight and if voters are interested in honesty in government, we believe they will have little trouble in deciding how to cast their ballots.

Our Neighbor, Mars

If you have been wondering how the scientists are able to tell so much about conditions on Mars, here is a sample: The Lowell Observatory in Arizona recently found that the temperature on Mars is 48 degrees above, instead of below zero, as had been supposed. This was learned by using the Coblentz radiometer, which is so delicate that it accurately measures the heat of a candle 100 miles away.

Human brains that can make such a wonderful mechanism will not be balked at finding a way to communicate with the people on Mars, if any.

The public used to sneer and guffaw when imaginative scientists, far in advance of their time, suggested that people may live on Mars and other heavenly bodies besides the earth.

Man's egotism, knowing no bounds, fancied that the stars and their satellites far off in space existed only as tiny points of light for men to glance at when they felt like it.

Now we know that our world is, in the universe, less than a single drop of water in the oceans. With knowledge, man becomes more humble.

Economic Loss

Several million Americans are continuously out of employment. Such is the report of the Russell Sage Foundation. (It doesn't include the economic parasites who live the life of ease without contributing anything to production or progress.)

The estimate of "several millions" as the total of people out of work is an average for good and bad years combined.

During hard times, as many as six millions are jobless.

Even in booms, as many as a million are out of work for weeks and sometimes for months at a time. A considerable part of this unemployment during prosperity is due to "floaters" who drift from one town to another or work a while and then loaf until their money runs short.

Striking an average, at least a tenth of the workers of our country are out of work, year in and year out. One man may be jobless only a month in a year. Twelve like him are equivalent to one man idle the year-round.

In this situation is a tremendous economic waste from the national viewpoint. For men consume whether they are producing or not. When a man isn't doing a tap of work, he must eat, wear clothes and have heat and shelter. And these, naturally, have to be produced by someone.

It stands to reason that the prosperity or standard of living of the American people could be raised a tenth if ways could be devised to keep the chronically-idle-tenth busy all the time.

The most sensible suggestion ever made has not been adopted, that is so old that it's beginning to get gray whiskers. This suggestion is that the national government, states and municipalities should embark on big engineering projects when times are dull. Thus hundreds of thousands or millions of men could be utilized at such needed construction work as the building of roads, bridges, public buildings and parks. Such a system would have to be elastic. Government construction work would expand when a lot of men were jobless, and shrink to next to nothing when labor was at a premium in private industry.

Eventually such a system will come into use—probably not overnight by legislative reform, but by evolution.

It would stop the economic or national loss. And it would solve the jobless man's personal problem—enabling him to produce continuously, a better way than taking care of him by charity, unemployment insurance or by eating up his meager and hard-earned savings.

We would hate to be so fat we had no lap upon which to sit the younger set.

The mothers who said, "What beautiful scenery?" has a daughter who says, "What nice parking places."

Many a flame is started by the flicker of an eyelid.

The new fall dance steps have many twists and turns.

PLENTY OF REASON FOR THIS CROWNED HEAD BEING UNEASY

LIMA NEWS HEALTH SERVICE

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

A delicate child is any child whose health is below standard. In order to explain what makes children delicate, we should have to traverse the whole field of medicine and hygiene. It might be done in half a column, but I'm not going to try until I've had more experience. All I wish to say about the delicate child is that he or she usually requires two things which school life often robs the child of, namely, daily exercise and a midday rest.

School, if it were not such a narrow institution, ought to be the place where all the children should receive an honest education, a broad education. The mind has been all the school undertook to train, until the last few years; latterly, the school has been training the hands; and on paper, at present, the school even includes the body in the scheme of education, the this modern innovation, education of the body other than the hands, seems silly to the old school masters, and whatever the freak laws may say about it or the educated faddists think, the old school masters, strongly-inrenched in the running of the schools, are determined that the farce shall never have serious recognition in the curriculum, and so they continue to graduate our children without physical training for they are convinced, the old school masters, that a sound mind can be developed in any kind of body, sound or sickly.

A delicate girl in high school carries four subjects, she or her teachers or the principal of the school will tell you the on paper and within the letter of the law she is taking five subjects counting a farcical gymnasium period once a week as a subject. The law requires that, and hence the girl visits the gym once a week and joins the teacher and a number of her classmates there in a half hour of hokum. The school encouraging trickery and fraud, in effect, getting by the law with a bit of shameless mockery.

THE HELPLESS MAN

"Last night I dreamed I'd died," said she, "Passed from this world and trouble-free; And getting up to Heaven's gate, I was received in royal state. "Come in and rest," St. Peter said, "Poor, weary wife be comforted. Come in and put your cares away. "No, no," said I, "I must not stay."

"What troubles you?" he asked and smiled, "At last you've come to Heaven, child! I know, I said, "and I am proud. To think in here I'd be allowed. But back to earth please let me go. My helpless husband needs me so; Since first I took his wedding ring He hasn't found a single thing. # LINGREL PITCHES LIMA TO VICTORY OVER NEW BREMEN

Wonderful Playing Of "Red" Grange Still Important Topic Of Entire Football World

ILLINOIS FAVORITE IN BIG TEN BATTLES

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — Illinois became the outstanding favorite for the 1921 gridiron championship of the Western Conference when the teaming "Blacks" defeated Michigan at Urbana Saturday. The score was 14 to 11 and 20 points were piled up for the spectacular plays of Harold "Red" Grange. Without him the team was only ordinary, experts were agreed.

It required less than twelve minutes in the opening period for Grange to score four touchdowns in brilliant runs of 65, 67, 69 and 11 yards. Michigan's only points came from a field goal and a touchdown in the second half.

Grange's performance was a masterpiece of football. He was a perfect combination of speed and power, and his plays were a constant source of amazement to the spectators. His touchdown runs were a masterpiece of footwork and timing.

STEP IN AND SEE JACK REHEARSE PUNCHES AND PATTERN

By JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK — If you are one of the "dumb" in Tin Ear Alley you will be permitted to step into the highly aromatic suite of Jack Dempsey in the Alhambra here and observe the champion in dress rehearsal for his newest historic knockout, entitled "Punches and Pattern."

At the present moment Mr. Dempsey's mind is as far removed from the business of crumpling hostile jaws as bread pudding is from the category of French viands.

Mr. Dempsey is to do a "double" in vaudeville with an attractive partner of the lobbied sex, for which he is to receive, according to Marcus Lewis, theatrical magnate, a mere matter of $10,000 per week. This means he will actually get about $2,500 a week. There is, you will perceive, a vast difference between per and a.

But that is unimportant. Mr. Dempsey is signed for a period of many weeks and there is more chance of La Follette leading three cheers for the Morgans than there is of Mr. Dempsey allowing anything so vulgar and commonplace as a prize fight to interfere with his bookings.

If Mr. Dempsey is seen in the ring growing savagely at a professional enemy before next May at the very earliest, it will be due to a widespread sympathy on the part of the customers for the champion as a talented vaudeville act who combines, according to his manager, Jack Koenig, the topmost merits of Johnson, Barrymore and Turpin.

You may care to listen in on a part of the act. Miss Wholes: How do you like the ring? Mr. Dempsey (blushing behind his flattering ears): Who told you I had bought her one? This is supposed to knock the boys right back on their heels, and is a fair, or unfair, example of what the outlying cities have in store for them this winter, besides the usual hardships that accompany a long winter.

Mr. Dempsey presently sheds his soup and halibut and steps forward in silk fighting trappings. He proceeds to demonstrate the punches with which he knocked out Willard, Brennan, Mike and Firpo. It is hoped that no roughneck will spoil the performance by demanding that Mr. Dempsey demonstrate how he did a backward-standing sitting dive out of the ring the night Firpo cracked him on the tonsils.

As a novelty Mr. Dempsey will make further demonstrations of his knockouts after the manner of slow motion pictures. Messrs. Altkrock and Schacht of the Washington champions have been pulling this stuff for years but there may be a few tax dodgers who haven't seen it yet.

YOU FIND A PITCHER

NEW YORK — Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants says he would willingly part with $100,000 for "Denny" Vance.

Charles Ebbetts, owner of the Brooklyn club, says twice that amount would tempt him for his star pitcher, the sensation of the majors in the season just closed.

These seemingly fabulous amounts being offered for a ball player makes the original sale of the now famous Vance look up as the one best laugh of the day.

Two years ago Vance was playing with the Superior club in the Nebraska State League. He was just a 20-year-old pitcher.

At that time Hastings, the home of Vance, was in the same league. He decided it would be silly to play in the old home town. When he asked the manager of the Hastings club what he was worth, the reply was: "If some one offered me $50 in real money they could have him."

Vance peeled five tens from his bank roll and joined the Hastings club. Originally sold for $50, his present employer isn't interested in an offer of $100,000 for his services.

It was Kenton day; a day given over to the devotees of the great national pastime in that little city. A memorable day that apart in honor of its favorite sons. Southworth, Donaldson and Lingrel. Just before the game J. Ray Stallings, well known attorney of Kenton, called these three boys to the home plate, and in presence of the thousands, who completely filled the grandstand, bleachers and temporary seats erected in the southeast corner of the grounds, with several hundred that could not find seats but were more than willing to stand so long as they could see the game, presented to Donaldson a beautiful Elks charm.

It was a great game, from any angle, not a "tail sticks" sample of sand lot warfare, but baseball played in accordance to the best accepted manner. "Get out and win this," said Southworth, and they did. Victory is no respecter of persons; victory has no con-

VAST THROGS CHEER AS HUMDINGERS WIN

By HARRY L. BRADBURY Sports Editor

There was gratifying expressions galore at the termination of the much heralded game between Auglaize county and Lima, at least the glorifying was in the majority—the big town won; set back fervent hopes, dreams, well laid plans of the sages of baseball in that compact community of fans, who journeyed, saw and sad to relate lost, hopelessly before tantalizing slants of Lingrel of Kenton, and his coadjutors, heroes of the club from the same tranquil climes, Billy Southworth the Giant and Donaldson a classmate in the art of nicking curves.

It was a classic collation of baseball celebrities that the few thousand baseball enthusiasts, jammed into every nook and cranny of Murphy-st grounds saw. It is seldom that so many players of national repute mingle in the "tail sticks," to fight out baseball supremacy, that to thousands of natives hereabout means more than a world series. It's the spirit of sport personified that characterizes these contests. And they saw heroes of the sporting world at the top of the class whaling out base hits, as multitudes saw in Washington and New York. Miller, the supplanter, whom Bucky Harris in desperation called on, after Peckinpaugh was horsed combat, and who governed third base with the dexterity and determination that helped put the mighty Giants back to broken hopes. He was there for the visitors, played third base with all his accurate skill as he did on historical field at Washington.

There was Lingrel who made baseball history for the Milwaukee Brewers, and who broke the hearts of thousands, when he murdered the penant hopes of Indianapolis, and let St. Paul carry off the coveted prize, for the fifth successive time. Great players under the battle flag of New Bremen faced Lingrel only to be set back in a baseball battle that meant the crux of sporting hopes to them.

It was a great game, from any angle, not a "tail sticks" sample of sand lot warfare, but baseball played in accordance to the best accepted manner. "Get out and win this," said Southworth, and they did. Victory is no respecter of persons; victory has no conscience, and so with mighty wallops from the sticks of Jones, who knew only too well the prowess of Lingrel in other games, Southworth, Gilbooley, Smith, the mighty slugger, the little hamlet within the confines of Auglaize had hopes shattered as completely as a dose of Manila malaria. Their sluggers were defeated fairly, squarely, as becomes the best sporting principles, hopes crushed perhaps, but waiting for another day. Sporting fate is a whimsical lady; perhaps tomorrow, some other day, whippersnaps; I'm in love with Lima this time; try again. So the big town won.

IT WAS KENTON DAY
It was Kenton day; a day given over to the devotees of the great national pastime in that little city. A memorable day that apart in honor of its favorite sons. Southworth, Donaldson and Lingrel. Just before the game J. Ray Stallings, well known attorney of Kenton, called these three boys to the home plate, and in presence of the thousands, who completely filled the grandstand, bleachers and temporary seats erected in the southeast corner of the grounds, with several hundred that could not find seats but were more than willing to stand so long as they could see the game, presented to Donaldson a beautiful Elks charm.

It was a great game, from any angle, not a "tail sticks" sample of sand lot warfare, but baseball played in accordance to the best accepted manner. "Get out and win this," said Southworth, and they did. Victory is no respecter of persons; victory has no con-value of these tokens as much as mementos of appreciation and neighborly good will, which all means more than money. And these were appreciated by these players, because there is an absolute sincerity from the given to the receiver. It was emblematic of friendship, priceless quality among the best things in life.

HOW THE GAME WAS WON
The game was won because the "man of mystery" yielded his when they counted most. Mr. Lingrel pitched a good game taking his performance as a whole, but was not invulnerable as a whole. He did not begin by pitching a tight ball at the beginning but tightened up towards the latter part of the game, and when his meant runs, they were not forthcoming. But it was a good game, taken from a spectacular point of view, and while a heartbreaker to the hundreds of New Bremen devotees who filled the north end of the grandstand, it was a thing of joy to a round thousand lovers of sport from Kenton and Lima's legion that know baseball when they see it.

NEXT BIG BATTLE AT OHIO STATE STADIUM

By HENRY L. PARRELL

CHICAGO — (By United Press) — After an impressive and most convincing victory over Michigan, the Illinois University eleven now ranks as the favorite to win the western conference championship.

Illinois, Chicago and Ohio State have not been defeated this season and are tied in the race for the "Big Ten" championship but Chicago and Ohio State have no "Red" Grange. Beyond all doubt Grange is the greatest football player that has come up in the last ten years at least. His exhibition of running, line bucking and passing Saturday in the Michigan game was one of the finest demonstrations of skill ever seen on any gridiron.

George Gipp, the late Notre Dame star, was the last wizard to flash across the gridiron. Gipp could kick better than Grange but he could do nothing else better. Chuck Healey, who made Ohio State history several years ago, was the greatest of all runners, but he couldn't get around the line and he couldn't throw. Healey couldn't do anything else better.

SUSNELL MEETS REMER ROBERTS HERE OCT. 29

All goes well towards the successful termination of the boxing show to be given under the auspices of the Business Men's club, Thursday, Oct. 29 at K. of C. Hall.

Matchmaker Charles Maxwell has succeeded in bringing together Frankie Susnell and Remer Roberts, two of the fastest boys in the featherweight division, and it required no little diplomacy to do so.

Word comes from Susnell at Portsmouth, Ohio, his home that he will be in Lima a week before he boxes and will work out at the Business Men's gym. He was not slow in acquainting Maxwell that he was not backward in picking someone to box him, he did not back out as a whole lot of boxers would, but made declaration that he would work faithfully and would step into the ring in the very best condition. "I'll have no excuse if I lose," said the little boxer.

Roberts has sent in his contract, and the receipt of the document, with Robert's name attached was sufficient reason for justifiable pride, for it is certain that no more important match between eleven boys has been made in boxing history of Lima. There are many who think that what the team will do the remainder of the season, Central backers, say. The local team, with the odds against it, held the strong, out-of-town eleven on practically even terms during the last half of the game and showed the ability to put up a strong game in the face of certain defeat, for Akron was leading Central 29 to 0 when Reems, a tough, two-handed boxer. He will never forget his last bout and how near both were to the land of dreams at several times during the contest at Canton. He says that he was not in the best shape on that occasion and he wants to be one of himself this time. He is confident that he will master Reems.

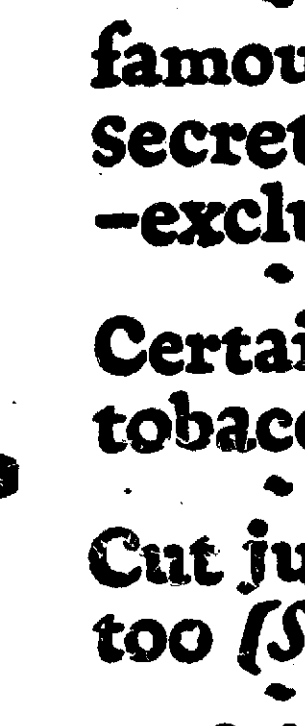

The bout between Jack Taylor, and Scott the Canadian at 148 pounds is causing plenty of speculation. Both are clever and will undoubtedly fight hard to make a reputation for themselves.

End harshness. End extravagance. Get a perfect shave every time. Just a few seconds of stropping—presto! A new-like blade. Only the Valet AutoStop Razor sharpens its own blades. Try it.

Manager Halloran of the local team received a telegram Sunday morning from Heath's mother in Toledo that "Mickey" was taken to a hospital Saturday.

"What's wrong?" Schaeffer, Lima second baseman, whose home is in Toledo, told the local manager Sunday afternoon that Heath was suffering from case of typhoid fever and will be unable to play in Lima any more this season.

"Ziz Zaz Alley"

The musical comedy, "Ziz Zaz Alley," opened its Lima engagement at the New Orpheum theatre Sunday matinee. Bernard and Carr, well known Columbia wheel baroque comedians, are featured in this production which played to large audiences Sunday.

An interesting plot is one of the features of this musical offering. It has to do with the Lavinia and her faithless mate who is well known along gay white way as "Madame Butterfly." She proves to be capable of spending all the money the retired pickle merchant can get his hands on.

He gets his friend Mike Hogan to act as a detective and procure evidence which he can use in divorce proceedings. During the course of the action Mike and Carr are out as a team and waiter respectively at the "Ziz Zaz Alley" which is maintained by Mons. Pluchard. The Frenchman's help has been asked out on him giving him and Mike the chance they desire as Mike's wife is one of the constant patrons of the place.

It is in the scenes at the cabaret that Bernard and Carr show themselves masters of this particular type of comedy. They are aided by a capable company and an attractive stage. The costumes are very appropriate.

Other features are Wayland and Taylor in a specialty between acts and Bernard's rendition of the "Golden Rule" or "The Seven Ages." New Orpheum audiences found "Ziz Zaz Alley" one of the best laughing shows of the present season.

Whiteman's Orchestra

Phonograph records have done much to make certain orchestras household words throughout the country.

It is very much the case with Paul Whiteman and his orchestra which is to be seen at Memorial Hall Thursday evening under the auspices of the Fauror opera house.

Whiteman has made a large number of records for companies and each new offering meets with increasing demand as the music is always up to date and the very best work of the well known group of musicians.

This is one of the reasons, perhaps, why the appearance of Whiteman at the head of his own orchestra in Lima is attracting so much interest. All dancers and most followers of the newest thing in music know Whiteman and need no urging when he appears in the city.

Indications are that Memorial Hall will be well filled when Whiteman personally presents his orchestra in "An Experiment in Modern Music" on Thursday evening.

At the Lyric

Brown's Saxophone Six, appearing this week at the Lyric in addition to its regular cinema program, pleased audiences Sunday with an array of novelty and surprise numbers. Comedy is introduced with the playing of the popular jazz selections and the antics of the hilarious comedian make the audience at times almost forget the excellent music.

All in all such artists are a welcome diversion here where there is no house presenting daily vaudeville bills. There will be a change of program Wednesday.

"The Wine of Youth," appearing Wednesday, King Vidor has made a delightful comedy-drama of the genre. It is a story of Rachel Grether's love success. Mary the Third.

The story deals with a thoughtless flapper and her flapper and rakester friends. The most of the story has been handled with a light humorous touch until the tragic climax of the story, when the love of Mary Hollister, the girl figure, is almost broken in a quarrel between her parents.

Vidor has enhanced his picture with his clever and interesting scenes. One of them is a "typical flapper party." Another unique feature of the story is the two "flash backs" at the opening. The first goes back to a year in 1917 when Mary the flapper is in love. The second goes back to 1917, when Mary the flapper is being courted by a man who is now opening his eyes to the Third, a flapper's flapper.

King Vidor plays Mary the flapper. Her admirers are played by Walker, James Morris, Leon, Nobles Agnew, William James, Niles Welch and William Collier Jr., and many other popular juvenile stars.

Paul Brown and Virginia Lee Corbin portray her flapper friends.

At the Quilna

Romance, royalty and mother-love, sumptuous settings, gorgeous gowns and a pulsating story are the ingredients that go to make "Her Majesty," Gloria Swanson's latest offering, an hour and a half's splendid entertainment. It's appearing at the Quilna all week.

Mary Roberts Rinehart is responsible for the story which appeared as a magazine serial under the title of "Her Majesty, the Queen." It concerns the life and love story of a fascinating little princess whose beauty attracts the King of a neighboring country. In spite of the fact that she is in love with a handsome captain of the guards, she is compelled to marry the King. Later she gives birth to a heir—the son of her captain lover whom she had secretly married. She tells the King that he is not the father and is banished to a convent, where several years later the captain finds her. He aids her in escaping and in kidnapping the young heir. From that point the picture develops several sensational situations which eventually lead to a happy ending.

Miss Swanson looks every inch a queen and gives a vivid characterization. Ian Keith, with a profile combining the best features of John Barrymore and Rex Ingram, is excellent as the gallant guardsman. There is a large cast of support.

Quilna News and an Accep Fabrics are added features.

DELPHOS LOSES

St. Marys Grid Squad Takes 12-0 Game

DELPHOS — Delphos Mercury journeyed to St. Marys Sunday afternoon, and were defeated by a score of 12-0. The two markers came easy to the reservoir team when they passed for the local secondary defense at two different times in the third quarter.

The battle began in sea-saw fashion, neither team being able to gain thru the line or by skirting the end. The end of the first half was 0-0, and it had all the appearance of ending in that manner until St. Marys slipped over the passes. Delphos then opened up the aerial department but was unable to put in the necessary punch for a touchdown.

After the home team had scored, it played a defensive game, kicking on the first down.

After the game, manager of the Delphos team stated that St. Marys would be scheduled to play here next Sunday.

The directors held that Gibbons failed properly to observe and obey black signal indications, adding that had an adequate automatic train control system been in use, the accident would have been prevented.

DAVIS COMES TO OHIO THURSDAY

To Speak at Cleveland, Then Goes to New York

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — (By Associated Press) — Reports given John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for president, during the last 24 hours by Tennessee Democratic leaders here, were summarized by Davis today in a statement declaring that the national and local tickets in this state will be given "an old time" tomorrow. Davis also reiterated his pronouncement that although he believed the La Follette-Wheeler Independent ticket would "snatch six or eight states" from Republican columns in November, he saw no reason for the Democratic party to fear that result.

That the Republican ranks were frightened by the prospect of La Follette success in the six or eight states, the candidate said, did not furnish sufficient reason for alarm in his party's councils.

Davis spent his time today between conferences at his hotel headquarters and two addresses he was to deliver.

As plans are drawn at present Davis will leave tomorrow for Louisville, Ky. The candidate will speak Thursday evening in Cleveland and leave that night, arriving in New York.

BOY GIVES LIFE TRYING TO SAVE BABY BROTHER

PORTSMOUTH — Paul Eugene Larramp, 9, was instantly killed Sunday while attempting to save his ten months old brother from injury. The baby was in the rear seat of an auto parked on a hillside. When the machine started the lad jumped on the running board to put on the emergency brake. Falling off he rolled under a front wheel of the machine as it backed down the hill. A fractured skull caused by the wheel of the machine resulted in death.

YOUNG OFFENDERS LOSE BICYCLES TEMPORARILY

Six bicycles were taken from juvenile traffic offenders Sunday night and are being held by police headquarters awaiting orders.

The boys from whom they were taken were riding without lights, or giving other youths "lifts" on the handle-bars, both of which are violations of the traffic ordinance.

Parents of the owners of the bicycles must consult juvenile authorities and obtain an order for the bicycles before they will be returned.

MILADY DEPENDS ON THE COW

Lowly Animal Graduates To Lofly Heights

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Mention cow, and you think of milk, cream, butter.

But the lowly cow has graduated far above this grade of mere milk and butterfat producer. She is the source of a thousand and one useful things for which average man had never before credited her.

"If the humble cow ever aspired to trademark her products," reads a report of the National Geographic Society here, the average shopper would be amazed at the "made from milk" labels which would adorn his purchases—ranging from horn-rim spectacles to chess men, magazines to radio sets.

"Consider a debutante's ball. The occasion would lose much of its glamor if the cow didn't supply the milk which helps provide many other adjuncts than the ice cream."

"The debutante's hair is kept in place by a flaring comb, made of

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

That's only part of the milk parade. Three per cent of the casein in cow's milk is the raw material for such a variety of products.

"In recent years," the report continues, "manufacturers have become active competitors of cheese makers in buying casein. The substance is highly cohesive, and is little affected by heat or moisture. Hence it is used as a glue and also as a binder in making glazed paper, in dyeing cotton cloth and in piecing together laminated furniture."

NEW YORK—(By Associated Press)—The recovery in stock prices which started last Friday, was resumed today with most of the popular industrials and rails improving fractionally on initial sales. National Lead opened three points higher and Commercial Solvents A, touched a new 1924 peak price at 71.

When the initial batch of buying orders had been absorbed and the upward movement had lost its momentum, bear traders renewed their attack and the general market turned irregularly lower with profit-taking accelerating the decline in many issues. S. S. Kresge broke four points and General Electric, Woolworth, Baldwin, American Can, Stewart-Warner and Colorado Fuel dropped a point or so. Independent strength was shown by Yellow Cab, Fisk Rubber first preferred, Pacific Gas and Electric, and International Harvester. Works six per cent reformed, up one to two points, foreign exchange opened steady with trading quiet.

Professional selling halted temporarily when the renewal rally in call money was lowered to 2 per cent. With pressure lifted, prices began to mount again with the best gain being recorded by specialties, particularly those in which pools are believed to be operating. Standard Industrial is the up side altho the oils continued in good demand around their recent high prices. Both of the chemical solvents issues sold at new high prices for the year, the A stock moving up more than three points to 72. Frisco came up on Gulf Mobile and Northern, the local traction, the Lombard Carburetor and G. R. Hunter were among the dozen or so issues to climb one to two points above last week's closing. National Active selling of Farmers' Players, which broke more than two points checked bullish enthusiasm somewhat, Bethlehem and Crucible Steel and Lehigh Valley losing a point or so.

Even Short Want Ads Sell Quickly!

Real estate buyers are constant readers of The Lima News Want Ad columns. The response from these readers is prompt, and a sufficient number of interested prospects usually respond to even the barest statement. If the Want Advertiser will word his Want Ad in such a manner that it will carry a real message, the search for a buyer will be greatly shortened, for any reader will know at once whether he wishes to follow up that particular offer. If the property offered for sale is what he wants, he will respond more quickly, in order to be on the ground first.

Mrs. J. Zebor ran this Want Ad for two weeks, and found a buyer for her house.

FOR SALE—House, 2 car garage, large lot, northwest section, Main area.

"The Lima News certainly brought a buyer after every other medium had failed," she said. "Why it seemed as if there must have been at least fifty answers from News readers. We got our price easily."

Have You Tasted It?

The new Shredded Wheat Cracker from the new ovens at Niagara Falls. You liked the old Triscuit, but you will like the new Triscuit better. It is crisper and better baked. Contains the entire wheat grain in a digestible form. Let the children have all they want. Its crispness encourages thorough chewing and that means sound teeth and healthy gums. For summer lunch in the home, at the club or camp. Toast it and eat it with butter, soft cheese or marmalade.

WASHINGTON

The City Beautiful

Autumn is the most delightful season of the year during which to spend a few days at the National Capital. Many enjoyable sight-seeing trips can be made, in and about the Government buildings, grounds and public parks that have made Washington world-famous. Do not fail to include in your itinerary, Mount Vernon, greatest of all American Shrines—only an hour's ride from the National Capital.

At no other season of the year is the scenery enroute to Washington so attractive. Hundreds of miles of the tree-covered Allegheny Mountains, the famous Horseshoe Curve, Lewistown Narrows and other beauty spots are at their best.

The Pennsylvania Railroad provides the most complete through train service of any railroad from the Central West to Washington.

When going to Florida this winter, travel via Washington. A few days stop-over will not only be restful but will make your trip more attractive.

Descriptive literature and further information, also the reservation of Pullman accommodations, may be obtained from any Ticket Agent or Passenger Representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad.
